A very general, but overall helpful, step by step guide to crafting a graduate level research paper. This was my first time teaching a graduate level academic writing course and the sections that were most relevant helpful to everyone (I had a variety of grad students from various disciplines) were the sections that focused less on the paper and more on specific academic language (e.g. common ...

AWG is one of the required texts for students in my graduate-level scientific writing course. Most of the students are multilingual and are pursuing a second degree. This book helps teach them the language choices necessary for formal, academic writing. It is useful, not hard to read, and full of practical exercises.
