After he had returned to London, Henderson asked for another ambassadorship, but was denied. He wrote Failure of a Mission: Berlin 1937–1939, which was published in 1940.He spoke highly of some members of the Nazi regime, including Reichsmarschall Hermann Göring but not Ribbentrop. He had been on friendly terms with members of the Astors' Cliveden set, which also supported appeasement.

Failure of a Mission: Berlin 1937-1939 by Nevile Henderson ...
Although largely forgotten, Failure of a Mission is arguably one of the most important political memoirs ever written in history. That is right, in history. The book, written by Sir Nevile Henderson, Britain's ambassador to Nazi Germany from 1937 to 1939, represents so many truths on so many different levels, it is impossible to be ignored or worse yet, not to be studied.
