Hans Baur became an indispensable part of Hitler's retinue after he gained Hitler's trust as a pilot. From that point on, Hitler would not fly with another pilot, so Baur flew him everywhere he went. Hitler has been given credit for being one of the first politicians to use a plane to go on campaign runs. Baur of course took him on these stops. The book has some interesting stories about his relationship to Hitler and his role as pilot and friend.
