An ancient highlander who's never been allowed to love. A modern woman who keeps men at arm's length. Can their passion overcome their pasts? Althea Jarden's botanical fieldwork keeps her happily busy, but it has kept her from relationships as well-by design. Because deep passions can overwhelm her, she concluded long ago that a conventional life was not for her. She's learned to depend on herself. But all the self-reliance in the world can't prepare her for being taken to ancient Scotland and what she finds there. Chieftain Brennus Skaraven would like nothing better than to remain dead, his legendary clan buried and forgotten. Anything would be preferable to suffering the manipulations of the druids. But when a strange lass comes crashing into his life, he discovers more than a reason to live. He finds the one thing that had always been denied to him and his kind-love.

When a modern day archaeologist lands in medieval Scotland, she leaves behind the one thing that might truly help-her memory. But Jema McShane doesn't make the trip alone. Her twin brother Gavin falls through time with her. Separated immediately, Gavin must fend for himself. But Jema lands in the powerful arms of the only Viking member of the McDonnel clan, Tormod. The giant Norseman can scarcely believe how the fates have favored him. His only desire is to protect the strange and beautiful woman, even if it means keeping her existence a secret. But for Gavin, the fates have a different path in store. His world becomes one of darkness, the likes of which he has never known.
