The ministers and church-workers should be trained well so that they can perform well, and do God's Assignments for them faithfully and satisfactorily. Many are in the ministry today without adequate training, and they have either messed things up or performed, by far, below God's Expectation from them. A minister is not supposed to be a novice, and he is to hold the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. The Word says, "If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the Words of Faith and of the Good Doctrine which you have carefully followed" (1 Tim. 4:6).

The Associate Minister is often like a lost ball in high weeds in the Black Baptist Church. Since the Associate most always has no official designation within the church, most don't know where they fit. At times, we have not known what to do with them. This manual is designed to help guide and develop the Associate to prepare for effective ministry and line up with the vision of the House.

Elders or deacons have a vital calling and function in building strong congregations. But they need clear guidelines and training to be effective. This manual provides practical instruction to help pastors and congregational leaders bring clarity and purpose to this key role. Every session in Training Ministry Teams reflects on Jesus' method of training leaders. In "Sent Out with Instructions" lay leaders will learn what they need to minister as deacons and elders. An "As You Go" section contains group assignments designed to move participants to act.

The journey of accepting the Call to serve in God's Kingdom is not always easy and does not always come with instructions. This study and workbook will help better equip you through your journey!!

The Prayer Ministry Training course was developed at HTB to train existing home group leaders and members to pray for people in a home and church environment.

The function of the Prophet has almost invariably been that of recovery. That implies that his business related to something lost. That something being absolutely essential to God's full satisfaction, the dominant note of the Prophet was one of dissatisfaction. And, there being the additional factor that, for obvious reasons, the people were not disposed to go the costly way of God's full purpose, the Prophet was usually an unpopular person. But his unpopularity was no proof of his being wrong or unnecessary, for every Prophet was eventually vindicated, though with very great suffering and shame to the people. If it be true that prophetic ministry is related to the need for the recovery of God's full thought as to His people, surely this is a time of such need! Few honest and thoughtful people will contend that things are all well with the Church of Christ today. A brief comparison with the first years of the Church's life will bring out a vivid contrast between then and the centuries since.

This complete leader's guide makes it easy to use Dr. Haugk's practical book to build community and train church members in distinctively Christian caring and relating skills.
