If you feel your marriage is finished, telling your spouse might depend on how you want to part ways. If you hope to continue your marriage and rebuild communication, intimacy, and romance, you probably need to come clean. Honesty is the best method for moving forward and the best way to rebuild trust after an affair.

Open & Honest: Telling your Spouse the Truth after an Affair

Marriages are based on open communication, trust, and a common goal. Love, romance, and other sweet unicorns and rainbows lose their novelty after the first few years and are eventually replaced by security and comfort. But If your partner is always lying to you, then that foundation of comfort and security is replaced with doubt.
