No - there is no relation between Elon Musk and Nikola Tesla. Although, Tesla cars, and company, were named after the Electric Engineer as Nikola Tesla was the innovator behind AC current, which is the electricity that Tesla vehicles use in their motors. Believe it or not, however, Musk is more of an Edison fan than that of Tesla. He appreciates that Edison came up with some great inventions and brought those to market to share with the world, and Tesla didn't really do that.
