Goddess & the Bull: Catalhoyuk. "On a cold day in 1958" writes Michael Balter 'the history of archaeology, and of our understanding of our own origins, was changed forever'. It was on that day in 1958, that archaeologist James Mellaart discovered one of the world's oldest towns, Turkey's Çatalhöyük. And thus began an archaeological odyssey into the origins of civilisation that continues to grip the archaeological world (see CWA 8).
