First, you captured several more towns in Occitania and seized their castles. Then you subjugated Legault and made it a vassal state. The king sent you to Brugia to help Maxwell unite the land under his power, but you betrayed him to keep him from getting too powerful." Owen smirked. "That was the king's idea, of course," he said bitterly.

The King's Traitor (Kingfountain Book 3) - YouTube

I like the way Wheeler is able to develop characters so deeply and maintain a believable persona for each of them, good or evil. Like the first two in the series, this story has intrigue, treachery, action, love, and a healthy dose of fanciful magic. There's blood and love but no graphic gore or sex.
