The Lost Journal gives the reader a fascinating insight into Bram Stoker's years leading up to his work as a writer of fiction. The entertaining Dublin stories show his Irish side and the tantalising tit-bits of shadows, mirrors and captured flies contribute to the future penning of his most famous creation "Dracula".

Verified Purchase. Bram Stoker died 100 years ago, days after the Titanic sank. We know him as the author of Dracula, but long before Dracula, he was just a young Irishman, hoping to be a writer, practicing poetry, and enjoying a good joke.
